The farmhouse is placed on the triangle among Florence, Siena and Arezzo, The location is really excellent since is central and close to all the major art cities of Tuscany and Umbria. Our holiday home has been created by the lovingly and painstaking renovation of a large XVII century estate. The farmhouse, divided into one cottage and four apartments, is set on a panoramic position on the gentle slopes that descend towards the Arno river. A large garden equipped with tables, chairs, canopies, with (7 x 12 metres) swimming pool with a part for children (3x3 metres) surrounds the compound. All the apartments have been tastefully finished, fully furnished and they have been endowed with TV sat, and their own heating system. Laundry room available for common use. BBQ. All units have reserved space on the garden & by the pool.
