Fays-Les-Veneurs is a quiet village, located in the province of Luxemburg. It is embraced by a glorious countryside and ideal for nature lovers. It is a perfect starting point for hikes in the forest and offers possibilities for cycling, mountain biking, horse riding and shooting. Kayak and canoe trips can be made from Bouillon. The neighbouring villages of Bertrix, Rochehaut, Frahan and Redu and the historical town of Bouillon are also worth a visit. The typical country house is located in the centre of the village and consists of "Le Jardin Sauvage" (sleeps 4 to 6) and "Les Trois Mousquetaires" (sleeps 10-12). The two dwellings have a separate entrance and a separate garden with terrace, garden furniture and one barbecue each but can be combined into a cottage for 18 people.
