The village La Campana has a medieval origin, but it took its current shape in the seventeenth century, when the Sienese Tolomei family of bankers built the master's villa with the chapel and enlarged the village. The buildings have recently been restored and now you can enjoy a relaxing stay here, surrounded by the splendid landscape of the Crete Senesi, by the art and history of this unforgettable corner of Tuscany and by the oeno-gastronomic delights of this region, among which the white truffle stands out. Every apartment, furnished in Tuscan style, has an independent entrance and a private shaded external space or terrace, equipped with tables and chairs for eating al fresco. The master's villa is surrounded by a large exclusive park with gazebo, and is furnished with late 19th-early 20th century pieces. All the kitchens in t

Activiteiten

At our guests' disposal are swimming pool, tennis court, children's playground, internet access, trekking routes in our Estate, laundry room, barbecue and parking area. Our Estate is a large-sized property and our farm holiday centre is surrounded by one of the most beautiful Tuscan areas: the Crete Senesi. It is only 25 km to the South of Siena, therefore it is a perfect location for spending relaxing holidays and, in the same time, it is easy to reach famous towns like Firenze, Siena, San Gimignano, Montalcino, Arezzo or Perugia, leaving from here.
