At the foot of the Pratomagno, set in the center of a charming town with ancient Roman origins Utensils Weeden will allow you to visit the beautiful Tuscan countryside, Chianti, Florence, Arezzo and Siena and also discover the beauty of the landscapes that surround the Setteponti road in Roman times called the "Cassia Vetus" which linked Florence to Arezzo and in medieval times it was crossed by many pilgrims as an alternative to Francigena on their journey to Rome. Remain along the road Setteponti as evidence of the distant Middle Ages wonderful perfectly preserved Romanesque churches like St. Gropina in Loro Ciuffenna. The Weeden House can be an ideal base for exploring the surrounding area, walk among the "frills", geological formations formed by sand and gravel clays stratified as high as a hundred meters, interspersed with deep gorge
