Razanac is small fisherman village cca 20 km North East from Zadar. It is still relatively undiscovered by tourists. That fact makes it a perfect spot for truly relaxing vacation. Hundreds of coves and bays give you an opportunity to enjoy privacy. Water in Podvelebit Channel is refreshing and pristine. Blue sea and skies create a perfect frame for natural beauty of the mountain on the opposite side. Through the summer people from nearby villages bring their products to offer on local farmer's market. Fresh sea food and fish are available during the whole year. Sea bottom of Podvelebit Channel is abundant with different forms of under-water life. During your visit it would be a shame not to visit medieval town Nin, Cathedral in Sibenik, newly restored Trogir, Diocletian Palace in Split and lovely monuments on Zadar peninsula. In clos
