If you are looking for a peaceful holiday on one of the best hidden spots of Rhodes, you should try this wonderful, spacious and well equipped house in the lovely picturesque village of Vati. The house is existing of two independent adjacent houses that are separated, so that it is a perfect place to stay for 2 families that still like to have their own privacy. Off course it is also possible to rent only one part of the total, in which case the other part will not be rented out. The interior decoration and furniture combine a playful use of colors with the use of warm wood, which creates a special and cozy atmosphere right away. A big attraction of this house is the nice and spacious courtyard with bbq. With stairs going up leading to a nice balcony. Enough space to enjoy and have dinner on a cool summer night using the huge barbeque, that's standing there, waiting to be used
