Banjole is an old fisherman village situated 7 km from town of Pula. Its existence we link to a Roman Empire when it was called by this name from Roman (Italian) word "bagni" which means baths. Even old Romans appreciated unique settlement of this resident situated on small peninsula. With its astonishing countryside its still now very popular tourist destiny. We advise You to spend some of Yours time and feel this wonderful place and nature. Today Banjole is counting cca 1000 souls and all of them are real "lovers" of their village and countryside. The climate is Mediterranean with 4 evenly scheduled seasons. Except nature we have in our offer well equipped tennis courts, trim and bike routes, bike, skuters, and boat rental service as well, and other water sport like scuba diving and cetera. There are several restaurants where You
